Prizes will be Prize List D (see Bisley Bible, Appendix XIII) and will be awarded in each of the four classes. Trophies will be awarded to the winners, in each of the four classes of the Civilian Service Rifle Championship.

All medals will be forwarded, by post, after the meeting to the address given overleaf by the competitor.

Butt Marking and Range Duties

It is a condition of entry that all competitors must be prepared to butt mark or do other range duties as required during this meeting. Other than in the Falling Plates, all competitors will generally shoot and mark 'turn about'.

Please note that 'buying out' will not be possible for the service rifle events during these days. It will therefore not be possible to shoot with two classes of rifle.

Vortex Optics are proud sponsors of the Practical Optic and Service Optic classes in The Rural Match. They are awarding 1st place silverware and prize scopes from the Viper PST range for 1st to 3rd place for each class.

Prizegiving BBQ

We are aiming to organise a Prizegiving BBQ on evening of Saturday 5th September. Details of this will be communicated when possible.
