Any uncompleted aggregates will also be refunded/ credited as per this policy. Ammunition for un-shot competitions will also be refunded even after the deadline

Entry Requirement Summary (See Terms of Entry below for full details):

- ✓ Shooter Certification Card (SCC): All shooters MUST be in possession of their SCC when shooting on NRA ranges. This is awarded to NRA Members, or by a Club Chairperson (of NRA affiliated Clubs) once a shooter has satisfied criteria as to the shooter's ability to use firearms and ammunition safely. If not in possession of an SCC, shooters may apply for a temporary SCC by emailing competitions@nra.org.uk
- ✓ NRA Membership: Membership to the NRA is required to shoot on NSC Ranges, and ensures the individual is covered by the NRA insurance package. Non-NRA members are welcome, but are required to pay an additional Non-Member Fee
- ✓ On the first day of the event you must be aged 14 or over (please contact the event Co-ordinator before entering if this is not the case)

Making an entry: Entries can be made and paid for online via: online.nra.org.uk. A downloadable paper entry form will also be available which can be returned via email or post

Overseas Competitors: Applications for Visitors Firearms Permits should be made at your earliest opportunity, as it can take a minimum of 3 months to be processed. Please use the Visitors Firearms Permit application form available as a download on the NRA website. Competitors from within the European Community must include a valid European Firearms Pass where applicable

Firearm Classes: The definition for F Class Rifles can be found under paragraph 164 of the NRA Handbook. Competitors can compete in either the F-Open or F-TR class

Muzzle Energy: Ranges at Bisley use the Danger Area of Pirbright Range, which under MoD requirements state that all firearms used must either have a muzzle energy under 4,500 Joules (3,319 ft lbs), or else be zeroed at 200 yards or on the Bisley Zero Range prior to being used at a longer distance. If your ME exceeds the limit then you must zero your rifle, using the specially designed target, the day before the start of your particular Meeting

Target Rifle ID (TRID): This is a unique index number that allows us to match up your scores from multiple Imperial Meetings. Your TRID is listed on your membership profile and on our online booking website: online.nra.org.uk/customer/info. If you do not have a TRID please leave the field blank and one will be assigned

Eligibility:

- Clubs: You may list up to two Clubs on your entry form, the Primary one will be listed on all prize lists and Secondary can be referenced by captains for team selection
- Country: Please state the Country you are eligible to shoot for even if you do not intend to shoot in international matches, as this is required to calculate your eligibility into certain aggregates and special duty exemptions – and so we can fly your flag at Bisley!

Courses of Fire: Conditions and courses of fire are listed in the NRA Handbook which can be found online and in a paperback book available to purchase from NRA Reception for £13.50

Ammunition: Competitors must supply their own ammunition, which may include handloads

Squadding: Once entries have closed, your entries will be allocated (squadded) to a specific time slot during the Meeting which will be communicated to you via email. We aim to squad F-Open and F-TR competitors in different details/ targets

Alternative Shooting Position: A competitor who is unable to shoot prone may apply upon entry to shoot from a bench (see paragraph 134b of the NRA Handbook). Competitors must provide their own bench in accordance to paragraph 156 of the NRA Handbook:

- The weight of the rifle must be borne fully by the body
- The butt may be supported in the shoulder but must not rest on the table or on an artificial support of any kind
- The competitor, table and other equipment together, must not take up more than their allotted space on the firing point
- The table must be of conventional design and be capable of being moved and erected by the competitor

Mentors: Any competitor, particularly those entering for the first time, can benefit from mentoring by an experienced competitor. To request this service please complete the appropriate box on the entry form. You will be contacted prior to the Meeting with further details. Any suitably experienced competitors who would like to volunteer to be a mentor should contact the Shooting Division via competitions@nra.org.uk

HME ZEROING: Before you can collect your scorecard pack, you must Zero your firearm and bring the zeroing card to the NRA Reception

When you Arrive: Please report to NRA Reception where your competitor pack will be ready for you to collect

Scorecards: Affix the corresponding squadding sticker (provided in your scorecard pack) to the top of each scorecard. Please record your scores in the top half of the scorecard, and the scores of the person you are keeping register for in the bottom half. The person you keep register for is the person on your target who shoots immediately after you. Once scores have been agreed please sign the card and place it into the scorecard box (on the Range Officer table) before leaving the range

Results: Results will be input on the day of the Competition and will be available online: www.nra.org.uk/liveresults

Challenging Results: It is the competitor's responsibility on the day of the competition to ensure that scores are written down correctly before submitting cards into the scorecard box

- Provisional results are printed on white paper and attached to the scoreboards to the side of the Main NRA Building. After results go final and are printed on yellow paper. If you wish to make a challenge to the digitising of your results you must do so whilst the results are Provisional

Prizelists: Prize Lists are displayed periodically throughout the Meeting outside the Main NRA building. After the Meeting they will be published on the NRA website, and made into a CD and paperback book typically available in January the following year. NEW for 2025: We will not be taking pre-payments for these items before or during the Meeting, they will be made available to purchase once made following the Meeting

Awards: Details of the specific match awards are listed in the NRA Handbook

Prize Giving: Presentation of all medals and trophies will take place at 6pm on Sunday 6th July Canadian Pavilion following the completion of the team competition. We have arranged a BBQ buffet to be served from 5.30-6.30pm. The Canadian Pavilion boasts a number of recent refurbishments, including to the bar and function space, whilst still maintaining its fantastic history. Tickets are £18 per person and include: Gourmet angus beef & chicken burgers served in brioche buns, North American steamed hot dogs in rolls, a selection of salads and desserts, and great hospitality!

Firearms Usage: The NRA is required to keep a record of firearms used by competitors as required by the Firearms (Amendment) Acts 1997. Following a Competition please go to your online profile and update your firearms usage: online.nra.org.uk/customer/firearmusages
