Rules: This event is governed by the rules laid out in the NRA Handbook (Bisley Bible), in addition to the below based on IPRF Rules. During the event the Match Director may look to both the NRA Handbook and IPRF Rules to gain clarity on any queries:

- Stage Inspection: Match Books detailing the layout of stages will be provided on the morning of the event. Each squad will have a maximum of 5 minutes per stage to inspect the layout
- Coaching: Coaching during a Course of Fire (CoF) is prohibited. Assistance before or after a stage is permitted
- Malfunctions: If a competitor's firearm malfunctions after the Start Signal, the competitor may safely attempt to correct the problem and continue the CoF. The competitor must not use rods or other tools to verify or correct the malfunction. Violations will result in a zero score for the stage. The CoF will be scored 'as shot' and any score achieved up to the malfunction shall stand, if applicable. The competitor's time shall be the maximum stage time. Where the firearm has failed, the competitor shall not be permitted to reshoot the CoF. This includes instances where a firearm is declared unserviceable or unsafe during a CoF
- Penalties: Shooters receiving 3 or more penalties will be disqualified from the match. Penalties are imposed when a competitor fails to comply with procedures specified in a written stage briefing and/or is found to be in violation of other general rules including unsafe firearm handling, including Negligent Discharge and unsportsmanlike behaviour

Overseas Visitors: If you wish to bring firearms to the UK as a visitor, or to possess firearms while visiting the UK other than in some restricted circumstances, you must have a Visitor's Firearm Permit. These documents are issued by the Police in the part of the UK you wish to visit, though your permit can be extended by the issuing Police Force to be valid in multiple locations. A Permit can be valid for up to a year, and for temporary residence of a year or less avoids the need for an import licence and subsequent export licence when returning home.

You must obtain your permit in advance – it is not possible to apply for one at point of entry. Please allow a minimum of three months.

If you bring firearms as part of your personal baggage, you must have the permit with you in order to clear UK Customs. If your firearms are shipped separately, you will need the permit to collect them from the importer. All the firearms and ammunition you import must appear on the permit, as must any firearms you intend to borrow or hire once in the UK.
