Entry Deadline: Thursday 8th October at midday

Entries will be accepted during the Meeting, and are subject to range availability. Any entries made during the Meeting will be stamped. Stamped scorecards do not benefit from advanced squadding, but can be fully refunded if unused and returned to NRA Reception by the end of the Meeting

Cancellations: Cancellations must be received via email to competitions@nra.org.uk by 8am Thursday 15th October.

Entries will be fully refunded (or credited) before this time, after this point entries are non-refundable. Credits are valid for 12 months from the date of cancellation

Making an entry: Entries can be made and paid for online via: online.nra.org.uk. A PDF version of the entry form will also be available which can be returned via email or post

Overseas Competitors: Applications for Visitors Firearms Permits should be made at your earliest opportunity, as it can take a minimum of 3 months to be processed. Please use the Visitors Firearms Permit application form available as a download on the NRA website. Competitors from within the European Community must include a valid European Firearms Pass where applicable

Firearms: Please refer to the match condition as to which firearm types can contest each match

Different Firearms: Competitors are not permitted to enter a match more than once, unless it is with a different firearm. If you have more than one firearm that is eligible for the same event, you may make multiple entries for that event – if so please state this clearly on your entry

Muzzle Energy: Ranges at Bisley use the Danger Area of Pirbright Range, which under MoD requirements state that all firearms used must either have a muzzle energy under 4,500 Joules (3,319 ft lbs), or else be zeroed at 200 yards or on the Bisley Zero Range prior to being used at a longer distance. If your ME exceeds the limit then you must zero your rifle, using the specially designed target, the day before the start of your particular Meeting

Gallery Rifle ID (GRID): This is a unique index number that allows us to match up your scores from multiple NRA Competitions. Your GRID is listed on your membership profile and on our online booking website: online.nra.org.uk/customer/info. If not yet in possession of one, this will be issued when you make your entry

Alternative Shooting Position: When entering a Meeting, a competitor who has a physical disability (temporary or permanent) which prevents the use of a position specified in the event conditions can apply via the entry form to the Meeting Director for permission to use an alternative position. Subject to approval the competitor will normally be allowed to adopt the next most difficult position for the event

Re-Shoot Events: You may only enter each specific event once – i.e. once per firearm type. The exceptions to this are the Running Boar, Running Deer and McQueen events that allow unlimited re-shoots during the Meeting

- Re-shoot tickets can be purchased as part of your online entry, or from the NRA Reception during the Meeting. Any un-used tickets can be refunded if returned to NRA Reception by the end of the Meeting

Courses of Fire: Conditions and courses of fire are listed in the Classic & Historic Handbook which can be found online and in a FREE paperback book available from NRA Reception

Squadding: All entries made prior to the deadline will be allocated (squadded) to a specific time slots during the weekend which will be communicated to you via email. Squadding is subject to change right up until the collection of your scorecards, so please follow your squadding link for details of any updates

- “Unsquadded” events: Any entries made during the Meetings will be unsquadded. Entries made before the deadline may also contain events listed without a time slot, this indicates there is no availability to squad them at the present time. These events are fully refundable once the unused scorecards have been returned to the NRA reception by the end of the Meeting. Competitors are responsible for speaking to Range Officers to fit into any gaps on range. The NRA team can assist in advising when there may be on the range availability

Scorecards: Affix the corresponding squadding sticker (provided in your scorecard pack) to the top of each scorecard. Once scores have been agreed, please sign the card and place it into the scorecard box (on the Range Officer table) before leaving the range

Results: Results will be input on the day of the Competition and will be available online: www.nra.org.uk/liveresults

Challenging Results: It is the competitor's responsibility on the day of the competition to ensure that scores are written down correctly before being signed by the Range Officer and posted in the scorecard box. Any challenges to scores before they are signed off must be made immediately to the Range Team on the day

- During the Meeting provisional results will be periodically published online
- Once the Meeting has finished no edits can be made for competitor errors on the scorecards. Following the publishing of scores online competitors have until midday on the Thursday of the following week to contact the NRA for errors relating to the digitising of the hand recorded scores. Please email competitions@nra.org.uk with any challenges

Awards: NRA awards are presented to the top-scoring competitors in each match, subject to the number of entries:

First place: when an event is contested by 2 or more individuals, will receive an NRA Silver Shoulder medal, a Gold Trafalgar Bar & a Prize Certificate. Trophies are awarded in certain matches, indicated by the 🏆 symbol on the entry form. Trophies are only presented when an event is contested by two or more individuals

Second place: when an event has 6 or more results, will receive a Prize Certificate

Third place: when an event has 11 or more results, will receive a Prize Certificate

All Competitors may also purchase Skilled Shot Certificates after the Meeting if they achieve a certain score (see individual match details for more information). Skilled Shot Certificates cost £1.50 each

🏆 The Trafalgar Letter: A framed copy of a letter written during the battle of Trafalgar will be presented to the winner of a specific match

🏆 Match Director's award: A framed picture presented by the Match Director in recognition of a person/ person's contribution to the Trafalgar Meeting

Prizegiving: Will take place on Sunday 18th October at 15:30pm in the NRA Pavilion. All individual first place bars and medals will be presented, in addition to any Trophies. Once the results are finalised, first, second and third place certificates will be posted out along with any uncollected bars and medals

Firearms Usage: The NRA is required to keep a record of firearms used by competitors as required by the Firearms (Amendment) Acts 1997. Following a Competition please go to your online profile and update your firearms usage: online.nra.org.uk/customer/firearmusages
