NRA TARGET RIFLE COURSE – UNIT 2: SIGHTS RECORD KEEPING & GROUP DEVELOPMENT

Sunday 22 March 2020

Welcome to the Fullbore Target Rifle Skills Programme for novice shooters!

The programme is comprised of 6 training units designed to help you develop the skills and confidence you need to shoot independently, enter competitions and take part in team matches. You may opt to follow this as a full programme or you can book onto the individual units that you need.

Unit 1 will introduce you to Target Rifle and cover foundation marksmanship principles

Units 2 - 4 will cover the core information and skills you need to shoot independently

Units 5 and 6 will help you to prepare for competition and team match shooting

Unit 2: AIM to provide you with the knowledge you need to use adjustable rifle sights successfully, record vital details about your shoots and hands-on coaching at short range to improve your groups:

- Why adjustable sights are used in Fullbore
- How to read and use adjustable front and rear sights
- Key elevation rises for short range
- Why and how to keep records during a shoot
- Signing in and out for targets at the Range Office
- Position and grouping practice at Short Range
